Story Elements

Genre	The type of story or literary work
Author	Person who writes the story/book
Setting	Where and when a story takes place
Main Characters	The important people in the story
Themes	The underlying or stated main idea of a story *Often, the author implies the theme through the narrator's/main character's thoughts and feelings. The theme can also be the message an author is trying to send.
Conflict	The major problem in the story Two categories of conflict: 1. External —happens outside of the character, involves more than 1 person, can be observed 2. Internal —happens inside of the character, involves only 1 person, can only be observed in the thoughts & feelings Three types of conflict: 1. Man vs. Nature (External) 2. Man vs. Self (Internal) 3. Man vs. Man (External or Internal)
Climax	One large event that changes the outcome of the entire story
Plot	The sequence of all events in a story *The plot is usually what we summarize
Critique	A reader's personal thoughts & opinions on the story or book *mentions both "likes" and "dislikes"

Andrew File System Retirement . Andrew File System (AFS) ended service on January 1, 2021. AFS was a file system and sharing platform that allowed users to access and distribute stored content. AFS was available at afs.msu.edu and netfiles.msu.edu. AFS was launched in the mid-1990s and was eventually superseded by newer platforms. Definitions. A bibliography is a list of sources (books, journals, Web sites, periodicals, etc.) one has used for researching a topic. Bibliographies are sometimes called "References" or "Works Cited" depending on the style format you are using. A bibliography usually just includes the bibliographic information (i.e., the author, title, publisher, etc.). A setting (or backdrop) is the time and geographic location within a narrative, either non-fiction or fiction. It is a literary element.The setting initiates the main backdrop and mood for a story. The setting can be referred to as story world or milieu to include a context (especially society) beyond the immediate surroundings of the story. Elements of setting may include culture, historical ... 11/03/2022 · In this Dec. 16, 2019, file photo, a Turkish-made Bayraktar TB2 drone is shown at Gecitkale military airbase near Famagusta in the self-proclaimed Turkish Republic of ...
